There are two conflicting perspectives regarding the relationship between profanity and dishonesty. These two forms of norm-violating behavior share common causes and are often considered to be positively related. On the other hand, however, profanity is often used to express one's genuine feelings and could therefore be negatively related to dishonesty.

1.. Introduction Crime is a social mirror. A long tradition in criminological research suggests that crime is most prevalent in societies that permit large disparities in the material standards of living of its citizens (Hsieh and Pugh, 1993; Kawachi et al., 1994). If the level of crime is an indicator of the health of society, then the US provides an illustrative case study as one of the most ...
